David,

There are approximately 32 files involved in this request. While the Department makes its best effort to maintain these files in order, they are routinely handled by a number of different people and as a result inadvertently become disorganized. We will do our best to produce these files in reasonable order.

Joan;

Thank you for getting back to me. I will like to review the files when I figure out a way to convert them to an electronic media.

Could you please assure me the records will be in proper order and chronological order?

Thanks

David Jennings

Mr. Jennings,

This message is a response to your recent inquiry as to whether the Northeast Regional Office will waive any reproduction fees associated with your request for copies of documents and whether the Northeast Regional Office would allow you to use a phone line to transmit copies of documents via facsimile.

Regrettably, we decline to waive fees associated with your intended request. Also, the Department declines your request for access to a telephone line for the purposes of transmitting copies of documents via facsimile. The Pennsylvania Right-to-Know Law only requires the Department to provide copies at 25 cents per copy or access to review documents in person at our offices and the means to make your own copies at the cost of 15 cents per copy.

If you have any further questions, please contact me at (570) 826-2419.
